Clinton County Canine Club Summer 2024 Class Schedule

Advanced Obedience/CGC

Tuesdays, 5:30 to 6:30 PM      Instructor: Heidi Sample, Assistant: Patty Gaudreau      Enrollment Limit: 8
First Class: June 25      Location: LaPier field, 190 McBride Road, Chazy, NY

This class will focus on helping you improve your skills and connection with your dog, resulting in greater cooperation and control. The focus of the class is designed to enhance and proof your dog's obedience and socialization skills. Loose leash walking, sit/stays, down/stays, door manners, food bowl manners and targeting will be addressed. Homework will be assigned. This class may be used as a pre-requisite to the AKC Canine Good Citizen evaluation. Class members may be offered the evaluation at the end of seven weeks.

Prerequisites/Notes:

- Welcome to the Real World, Beyond the Backyard, Family Pet Manners Basic Obedience or Puppy Kindergarten (with recommendation of instructor).
- Classes meet weekly for a total of seven weeks.

Clinton County Canine Club Summer 2024 Class Schedule

Training Your Dog to Hunt for Shed Deer Antlers

Saturdays, 10:00AM

Instructor: Charles Bubbins, Assistant: Rodney LaPier

Enrollment Limit: 6

First Class: August 17

Location: LaPier field, 190 McBride Road, Chazy, NY

All dogs of all breeds have the genetic code in their background to naturally and instinctively search for just about anything that has an aroma. With a nose sensitivity a hundred times more intense than that of humans, all canines have the ability to hunt for shed antlers if given the necessary training.

Prerequisites/Notes:

- Beginner Tracking (These dogs have already been taught to follow a scent, but the important part of their training has taught them to keep their noses to the ground.)
- Dogs should have the following skills:
  - Pick up an object (toy, ball, frisbie, etc.)
  - Retrieve of an object
  - Good recall
- Materials required:
  - Long line
  - 6' leash
- The majority of the training will be done in a fenced area of 80' x 120' and/or on a long line.
- Classes meet weekly for a total of six weeks.
